Mr. Tyrone Feeling

Re: Active Shooter Presentation

Dear Mr. Feeling,

This letter is in response to your request of October 1, 2014, for review of the above referenced presentation for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Manual (POL05-001-RMD).

We have reviewed the work and concluded that none of the information presented falls within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of the content of your work, as presented in your submission. Our findings are based on Bureau publication and security policy and extend only to the release of information contained in your submission. This, however, does not constitute approval by the FBI for you to engage in publication for compensation, sale, or other commercial use of your work. In that regard, you must also comply with the Standards of Ethical Conduct for the Executive Branch.

The Standards limit the circumstances under which an employee may accept compensation for the sale or publication of written works. The Standards also limit the extent to which you may use your official title, position, FBI status, or other indicia of your FBI employment in connection with publishing, advertising or marketing your work, to include mention in any biographical statement related to the work, such as in a "dust jacket." If you intend to mention in your biographical statement that you work for the FBI, you should consult the Office of Integrity and Compliance (OIC).

Again, compliance with the prepublication policy does not relieve you of the obligation to comply with the Standards and other applicable FBI and Office of Government Ethics regulations or policies. Prior to taking any further action with respect to this work, consider applicable regulations as set forth in the FBI Ethics and Integrity Program Policy Guide (0454PG), with particular attention to Sections 4.8. and 4.9. You may also be required to submit an FD-331 Outside Employment Form depending on how you intend to sell or market your work. Please contact the OIC if you have any questions regarding these regulations.

As your work may also impact the mission of the Office of Public Affairs, a copy of this letter has been forwarded to that office for their information.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at fbiprepub@ic.fbi.gov. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Re: Request to Participate in a Television Show

Dear Mr. Harmon,

This letter is in response to your request of October 8, 2014, for approval of a request to participate in a television show, pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Manual (POL05-001-RMD).

Your request to participate is approved, subject to the following: Any discussion of matters concerning your past official duties with the FBI may not involve pending cases, grand jury, classified, and other information, the disclosure of which could violate criminal laws or Department of Justice or FBI policy. In addition, please be advised that this approval should not be construed to permit the disclosure of:

Information protected from agency disclosure by the Privacy Act;

Information that is classified or the disclosure of which could otherwise harm national security;

Information that reveals sensitive law enforcement, intelligence, or counterintelligence techniques, sources or methods; or that reveals the sensitive, confidential or proprietary techniques, sources, or methods of other agencies or entities;

Information that would reveal grand jury material protected from disclosure by Rule 6(e) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure;

Information that would reveal the identity of a confidential source or informant;

Information that relates to any sensitive operational details or the substantive merits of any ongoing or open investigation, inquest, probe, prosecution, appeal, or case;

G. Information that consists of the proprietary information of another, including trading secrets;

H. Information pertaining to wiretaps or intercepts protected or regulated by Title III (Title 18, U.S.C., Sections 2510-2520);

I. Information pertaining to currency transaction reports regulated or protected by Title 31, U.S.C., Section 5319;

J. Tax return information regulated or protected by Title 26, U.S.C., Section 6103;

K. Information pertaining to contractor bids or proposals or source-selection information before the award of the procurement contract to which the information relates;

L. Information protected from disclosure by any other federal statute or regulation; or,

M. Information exempt from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act (Title 5, U.S. C., Section 552) unless the material is clearly already in the public domain. (MAOP, Part I, 1-24 (5) (a) (1))

Also please also provide a clear statement that the views expressed are yours and do not reflect those of the FBI.

Re: Script: "Plastic Indian"

Dear Mr. Cortese,

This letter is in response to your request of October 21, 2014, for review of the above referenced script for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Manual (POL05-001-RMD).

We have reviewed the work and concluded that none of the information presented falls within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of the content of your work, as presented in your submission. Our findings are based on Bureau publication and security policy and extend only to the release of information contained in your submission. This, however, does not constitute approval by the FBI for you to engage in publication for compensation, sale, or other commercial use of your work. In that regard, you must also comply with the Standards of Ethical Conduct for the Executive Branch.

The Standards limit the circumstances under which an employee may accept compensation for the sale or publication of written works. The Standards also limit the extent to which you may use your official title, position, FBI status, or other indicia of your FBI employment in connection with publishing, advertising or marketing your work, to include mention in any biographical statement related to the work, such as in a "dust jacket." If you intend to mention in your biographical statement that you work for the FBI, you should consult the Office of Integrity and Compliance (OIC).

Again, compliance with the prepublication policy does not relieve you of the obligation to comply with the Standards and other applicable FBI and Office of Government Ethics regulations or policies. Prior to taking any further action with respect to this work, consider applicable regulations as set forth in the FBI Ethics and Integrity Program Policy Guide (0454PG), with particular attention to Sections 4.8. and 4.9. You may also be required to submit an FD-331 Outside Employment Form depending on how you intend to sell or market your work. Please contact the OIC if you have any questions regarding these regulations.

As your work may also impact the mission of the Office of Public Affairs, a copy of this letter has been forwarded to that office for their information.

Dear Mr. Tromblay,

This letter is in response to your request of November 5, 2014, for review of the above referenced book chapter for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Manual (POL05-001-RMD).

We have reviewed the work and concluded that none of the information presented falls within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of the content of your work, as presented in your submission. Our findings are based on Bureau publication and security policy and extend only to the release of information contained in your submission. This, however, does not constitute approval by the FBI for you to engage in publication for compensation, sale, or other commercial use of your work. In that regard, you must also comply with the Standards of Ethical Conduct for the Executive Branch.

The Standards limit the circumstances under which an employee may accept compensation for the sale or publication of written works. The Standards also limit the extent to which you may use your official title, position, FBI status, or other indicia of your FBI employment in connection with publishing, advertising or marketing your work, to include mention in any biographical statement related to the work, such as in a "dust jacket." If you intend to mention in your biographical statement that you work for the FBI, you should consult the Office of Integrity and Compliance (OIC).

Again, compliance with the prepublication policy does not relieve you of the obligation to comply with the Standards and other applicable

b6 -2

FBI and Office of Government Ethics regulations or policies. Prior to taking any further action with respect to this work, consider applicable regulations as set forth in the FBI Ethics and Integrity Program Policy Guide (0454PG), with particular attention to Sections 4.8. and 4.9. You may also be required to submit an FD-331 Outside Employment Form depending on how you intend to sell or market your work. Please contact the OIC if you have any questions regarding these regulations.

As your work may also impact the mission of the Office of Public Affairs, a copy of this letter has been forwarded to that office for their information.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at fbiprepub@ic.fbi.gov. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Dear Mr. Tromblay,

This letter is in response to your request of November 12, 2014, for review of the above referenced article for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Manual (POL05-001-RMD).

We have reviewed the work and concluded that none of the information presented falls within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of the content of your work, as presented in your submission. Our findings are based on Bureau publication and security policy and extend only to the release of information contained in your submission. This, however, does not constitute approval by the FBI for you to engage in publication for compensation, sale, or other commercial use of your work. In that regard, you must also comply with the Standards of Ethical Conduct for the Executive Branch.

The Standards limit the circumstances under which an employee may accept compensation for the sale or publication of written works. The Standards also limit the extent to which you may use your official title, position, FBI status, or other indicia of your FBI employment in connection with publishing, advertising or marketing your work, to include mention in any biographical statement related to the work, such as in a "dust jacket." If you intend to mention in your biographical statement that you work for the FBI, you should consult the Office of Integrity and Compliance (OIC).

Again, compliance with the prepublication policy does not relieve you of the obligation to comply with the Standards and other applicable FBI and Office of Government Ethics regulations or policies. Prior to taking any further action with respect to this work, consider applicable regulations as set forth in the FBI Ethics and Integrity Program Policy Guide (0454PG), with particular attention to Sections 4.8. and 4.9. You may also be required to submit an FD-331 Outside Employment Form depending on how you intend to sell or market your work. Please contact the OIC if you have any questions regarding these regulations.

As your work may also impact the mission of the Office of Public Affairs, a copy of this letter has been forwarded to that office for their information.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at fbiprepub@ic.fbi.gov. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Re: Speech Outline and Approval

Dear Mr. Kuchar,

This letter is in response to your request of January 20, 2015, for approval of an outline and presentation to be given to the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners, pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Manual (POL05-001-RMD).

Your outline and request to speak are approved, subject to the following: Any discussion of matters concerning your past official duties with the FBI may not involve pending cases, grand jury, classified, and other information, the disclosure of which could violate criminal laws or Department of Justice or FBI policy. In addition, please be advised that this approval should not be construed to permit the disclosure of:

Information protected from agency disclosure by the Privacy Act;

Information that is classified or the disclosure of which could otherwise harm national security;

Information that reveals sensitive law enforcement, intelligence, or counterintelligence techniques, sources or methods; or that reveals the sensitive, confidential or proprietary techniques, sources, or methods of other agencies or entities;

Information that would reveal grand jury material protected from disclosure
by Rule 6(e) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure;

Information that would reveal the identity of a confidential source

or informant;

Information that relates to any sensitive operational details or the substantive merits of any ongoing or open investigation, inquest, probe, prosecution, appeal, or case;

G. Information that consists of the proprietary information of another, including trading secrets;

H. Information pertaining to wiretaps or intercepts protected or regulated by Title III (Title 18, U.S.C., Sections 2510-2520);

I. Information pertaining to currency transaction reports regulated or protected by Title 31, U.S.C., Section 5319;

J. Tax return information regulated or protected by Title 26, U.S.C., Section 6103;

K. Information pertaining to contractor bids or proposals or source-selection information before the award of the procurement contract to which the information relates;

L. Information protected from disclosure by any other federal statute or regulation; or,

M. Information exempt from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act (Title 5, U.S. C., Section 552) unless the material is clearly already in the public domain. (MAOP, Part I, 1-24 (5) (a) (1))

Also please provide a clear statement in your presentation that the views expressed are yours and not those of the FBI.

Mr. Robin K. DreekeRe: Book Forward
Dear Mr. Dreeke,

This letter is in response to your request of February 3, 2015, for review of the above referenced book forward for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Manual (POL05-001-RMD).

We have reviewed the work and concluded that none of the information presented falls within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of the content of your work, as presented in your submission. Our findings are based on Bureau publication and security policy and extend only to the release of information contained in your submission. This, however, does not constitute approval by the FBI for you to engage in publication for compensation, sale, or other commercial use of your work. In that regard, you must also comply with the Standards of Ethical Conduct for the Executive Branch.

The Standards limit the circumstances under which an employee may accept compensation for the sale or publication of written works. The Standards also limit the extent to which you may use your official title, position, FBI status, or other indicia of your FBI employment in connection with publishing, advertising or marketing your work, to include mention in any biographical statement related to the work, such as in a "dust jacket." If you intend to mention in your biographical statement that you work for the FBI, you should consult the Office of Integrity and Compliance (OIC).

taking any further action with respect to this work, consider applicable regulations as set forth in the FBI Ethics and Integrity Program Policy Guide (0454PG), with particular attention to Sections 4.8. and 4.9. You may also be required to submit an FD-331 Outside Employment Form depending on how you intend to sell or market your work. Please contact the OIC if you have any questions regarding these regulations.

As your work may also impact the mission of the Office of Public Affairs, a copy of this letter has been forwarded to that office for their information.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at fbiprepub@ic.fbi.gov. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Re: Manuscript: "Conversations with the Devil"

Dear Mr. Douglas,

This letter is in response to your request of December '30, 2014, for review of the above referenced manuscript for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Manual (POL05-001-RMD).

Your submission was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and we concluded that none of the information presented falls within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of your manuscript, as presented.

You may include your past FBI employment as part of your biographical data, providing that the FBI is given no more emphasis than other similar biographical information. In addition, please incorporate a disclaimer advising readers that the opinions expressed in the manuscript are yours and not those of the FBI.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [REDACTED] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at fbiprepub@ic.fbi.gov. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Re: Manuscript: "If the Public Only Knew"

Dear Mr. McGowan,

This letter is in response to your request of November 26, 2014, for review of the above referenced manuscript for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Manual (POL05-001-RMD).

This manuscript was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and the reviewer noted the following matters which require possible amendment/correction.

Our findings are based on Bureau publication and security policy and extend only to the release of information contained in your submission. This, however, does not constitute approval by the FBI for you to engage in publication for compensation, sale, or other commercial use of your work. In that regard, you must also comply with the Standards of Ethical Conduct for the Executive Branch.

The Standards limit the circumstances under which an employee may accept compensation for the sale or publication of written works. The Standards also limit the extent to which you may use your official title, position, FBI status, or other indicia of your FBI employment in connection with publishing, advertising or marketing your work, to include mention in any biographical statement related to the work, such as in a "dust jacket." If you intend to mention in your biographical statement that you work for the FBI, you should consult the Office of Integrity and Compliance (OIC).

Again, compliance with the prepublication policy does not relieve you of the obligation to comply with the Standards and other applicable FBI and Office of Government Ethics regulations or policies. Prior to taking any further action with respect to this work, consider applicable regulations as set forth in the FBI Ethics and Integrity Program Policy Guide (0454PG), with particular attention to Sections 4.8. and 4.9. You may also be required to submit an FD-331 Outside Employment Form depending on how you intend to sell or market your work. Please contact the OIC if you have any questions regarding these regulations.

As your work may also impact the mission of the Office of Public Affairs, a copy of this letter has been forwarded to that office for their information.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [REDACTED] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at fbiprepub@ic.fbi.gov. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Re: Liberty University Presentation

Dear Dr. Neubauer,

This letter is in response to your request of January 27, 2015, for review of the above referenced presentation for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Manual (POL05-001-RMD).

This presentation was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and the reviewer noted the following matter which requires possible amendment/correction.

On pages 1, 8 and 16, please remove both the FBI and Laboratory Division seals. Please be advised that you are not authorized to use the FBI seal or Special Agent badge, or any colorable imitations in connection with your presentation. You are further advised that you are not authorized to use the initials FBI, the words Federal Bureau of Investigation, or any colorable imitations in any manner reasonably calculated to convey the impression that the FBI endorses, approves, or authorizes your publication.

Our findings are based on Bureau publication and security policy and extend only to the release of information contained in your submission. This, however, does not constitute approval by the FBI for you to engage in publication for compensation, sale, or other commercial use of your work. Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of the content of your work, as presented in your submission. Our findings are based on Bureau publication and security policy and extend only to the release of information contained in your submission. This, however, does not constitute approval by the FBI for you to engage in publication for compensation, sale, or other commercial use of your work. In that regard, you must also comply with the Standards of Ethical Conduct for the Executive Branch.

The Standards limit the circumstances under which an employee may accept compensation for the sale or publication of written works. The Standards also limit the extent to which you may use your official title, position, FBI status, or other indicia of your FBI employment in connection with publishing, advertising or marketing your work, to include mention in any biographical statement related to the work, such as in a "dust jacket." If you intend to mention in your biographical statement that you work for the FBI, you should consult the Office of Integrity and Compliance (OIC).

Again, compliance with the prepublication policy does not relieve you of the obligation to comply with the Standards and other applicable

FBI and Office of Government Ethics regulations or policies. Prior to taking any further action with respect to this work, consider applicable regulations as set forth in the FBI Ethics and Integrity Program Policy Guide (0454PG), with particular attention to Sections 4.8. and 4.9. You may also be required to submit an FD-331 Outside Employment Form depending on how you intend to sell or market your work. Please contact the OIC if you have any questions regarding these regulations.

As your work may also impact the mission of the Office of Public Affairs, a copy of this letter has been forwarded to that office for their information.

Dear David: We represent Mr. Robert Kobus, and FBI employee in the New York Field Office. Mr. Kobus filed an FBI whistleblower claim, and after some years the OARM ruled in his favor. The FBI/OARM approved the release of a redacted version of the decision and a letter related to that decision. They are attached.

As you may be aware, the Senate Judiciary Committee is conducting a hearing on the FBI/OARM whistleblower program next Wednesday. Mr. Kobus will be attending the hearing (he is not a witness), and we expect that members of the press will ask him questions about his case. His case was one of three major cases reviewed by the General Accounting Office and the Senate Judiciary Committee.

Within the bounds of the established rules governing FBI media contacts set forth below, and for which we have followed in other cases, I am requesting on behalf of Mr. Kobus permission for him to speak to the press on his case.

Because the hearing is coming up very soon, we would greatly appreCiate a response by close of business Monday.

We are copying Mr. Kobus on this email.

Thank you in advance for your prompt attention to this matter.

Sincerely yours, Steve Kohn and David Colapinto

Mr. Ed BrunerRe: Interview Regarding Jessyca Mullenberg Abduction
Dear Mr. Bruner,

This letter is in response to your request of March 10, 2015, for a request to participate in an interview pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Manual (POL05-001-RMD).

Your request to participate is approved, subject to the following: Any discussion of matters concerning your past official duties with the FBI may not involve pending cases, grand jury, classified, and other information, the disclosure of which could violate criminal laws or Department of Justice or FBI policy. In addition, please be advised that this approval should not be construed to permit the disclosure of:

Information protected from agency disclosure by the Privacy Act;

Information that is classified or the disclosure of which could otherwise harm national security;

Information that reveals sensitive law enforcement, intelligence, or counterintelligence techniques, sources or methods; or that reveals the sensitive, confidential or proprietary techniques, sources, or methods of other agencies or entities;

Information that would reveal grand jury material protected from disclosure
by Rule 6(e) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure;

Information that would reveal the identity of a confidential source or informant;

b6 -1

Information that relates to any sensitive operational details or the substantive merits of any ongoing or open investigation, inquest, probe, prosecution, appeal, or case;

Information that consists of the proprietary information of another, including trading secrets;

H. Information pertaining to wiretaps or intercepts protected or regulated by

Title III (Title 18, U.S.C., Sections 2510-2520);

I. Information pertaining to currency transaction reports regulated or protected by Title 31, U.S.C., Section 5319;

J. Tax return information regulated or protected by Title 26, U.S.C., Section 6103;

K. Information pertaining to contractor bids or proposals or source-selection information before the award of the procurement contract to which the information relates;

L. Information protected from disclosure by any other federal statute or regulation; or,

M. Information exempt from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act (Title 5, U.S. C., Section 552) unless the material is clearly already in the public domain. (MAOP, Part I, 1-24 (5) (a) (1))

Also please also provide a clear statement in your interview that the views expressed are yours and not those of the FBI.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [REDACTED] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at fbiprepub@ic.fbi.gov. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

*If the names listed above are already pseudonyms, the names are approved. In addition, if the names are publicly known through court records or news articles, the names are approved. If not, please delete or modify the names. Also, if you have written approval from the above individuals to use their real name, please provide a copy of the authorization, and we will approve the release. On page 21, 1st paragraph, lines 1-3, please delete the language regarding the Federal Grand Jury. Information that would reveal grand jury material is prohibited from disclosure.

On page 22, 1st paragraph, lines 3-12, please delete these lines in their entirety. Information that would reveal grand jury material is prohibited from disclosure.

On page 30, 4th paragraph, please delete the first sentence in its entirety. In addition, please delete the last 4 lines of this paragraph in their entirety. Information that would reveal grand jury material is prohibited from disclosure.

When discussing the CW, please modify the language used to describe the CW and the specifics of his/her role in the investigation, to better protect the identity of this individual.

You are required to submit an updated version of this manuscript once the changes above have been made.

You may include your past FBI employment as part of your biographical data, providing that the FBI is given no more emphasis than other similar biographical information. In addition, please incorporate a disclaimer advising readers that the opinions expressed in the manuscript are yours and not those of the FBI.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at fbiprepub@ic.fbi.gov. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Re: Paper: "We Stabbed Her: A Murder in West Virginia"

Dear Mr. Ambrosini,

This letter is in response to your request of March 16, 2015, for review of the above referenced paper for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Manual (POL05-001-RMD).

We have reviewed the work and concluded that none of the information presented falls within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of the content of your work, as presented in your submission. Our findings are based on Bureau publication and security policy and extend only to the release of information contained in your submission. This, however, does not constitute approval by the FBI for you to engage in publication for compensation, sale, or other commercial use of your work. In that regard, you must also comply with the Standards of Ethical Conduct for the Executive Branch.

Again, compliance with the prepublication policy does not relieve you of the obligation to comply with the Standards and other applicable FBI and Office of Government Ethics regulations or policies. Prior to taking any further action with respect to this work, consider applicable regulations as set forth in the FBI Ethics and Integrity Program Policy Guide (0454PG), with particular attention to Sections 4.8. and 4.9. You may also be required to submit an FD-331 Outside Employment Form depending on how you intend to sell or market your work. Please contact the OIC if you have any questions regarding these regulations.

As your work may also impact the mission of the Office of Public Affairs, a copy of this letter has been forwarded to that office for their information.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at fbiprepub@ic.fbi.gov. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Re: Article: "Impediment to Intelligence: How the FBI's Corporate Culture has Undercut Post September 11 Reform"

Dear Mr. Tromblay,

This letter is in response to your request of March 23, 2015, for review of the above referenced article for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Manual (POL05-001-RMD).

We have reviewed the work and concluded that none of the information presented falls within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of the content of your work, as presented in your submission. Our findings are based on Bureau publication and security policy and extend only to the release of information contained in your submission. This, however, does not constitute approval by the FBI for you to engage in publication for compensation, sale, or other commercial use of your work. In that regard, you must also comply with the Standards of Ethical Conduct for the Executive Branch.

The Standards limit the circumstances under which an employee may accept compensation for the sale or publication of written works. The Standards also limit the extent to which you may use your official title, position, FBI status, or other indicia of your FBI employment in connection with publishing, advertising or marketing your work, to include mention in any biographical statement related to the work, such as in a "dust jacket." As you mentioned in your biographical statement that you work for the FBI, you should consult the Office of Integrity and Compliance (OIC).

Again, compliance with the prepublication policy does not relieve you of the obligation to comply with the Standards and other applicable FBI and Office of Government Ethics regulations or policies. Prior to taking any further action with respect to this work, consider applicable regulations as set forth in the FBI Ethics and Integrity Program Policy Guide (0454PG), with particular attention to Sections 4.8. and 4.9. You may also be required to submit an FD-331 Outside Employment Form depending on how you intend to sell or market your work. Please contact the OIC if you have any questions regarding these regulations.

As your work may also impact the mission of the Office of Public Affairs, a copy of this letter has been forwarded to that office for their information.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [REDACTED] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at fbiprepub@ic.fbi.gov. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Re: Resume

Dear Mr. Colvin,

This letter is in response to your request of March 16, 2015, for review of the above referenced resume for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Manual (POL05-001-RMD).

This resume was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and the reviewer noted the following matters which require possible amendment/correction.

In the last bullet on page 1, please modify the language to protect the sensitivity of this operation. Approved language is as follows: "Communicator: By effectively communicating intelligence, IA Colvin has improved the ability of the FBI to prepare for high profile events such as the 2014 World Cup in Brazil. IA Colvin established multiple liaisons that proved vital in sharing threat information during the World Cup, and provided time sensitive analysis to Legat Brasilia and FBI Miami on emerging threats during the games. IA Colvin briefed policy makers on the key threats that had the potential of disrupting the events. This resulted in an increased intelligence sharing between agencies, and was proactive in providing actionable intelligence during an emerging threat."

On page 3, lines 24-25, the CIA advised that a modification be made to your job description. Approved language is as follows: "From 2005-2006, IA Colvin worked with an Intelligence Community unit, where he conducted imagery disclosures and release requests for IC customers."

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact

Dear Mr. Tromblay,

This letter is in response to your request of April 6, 2015, for review of the above referenced article for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review
Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Manual (POL05-001-RMD).

This article was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and the reviewer noted the following matter which requires possible amendment/correction.

On page one, please delete the block, "Federal Bureau of Investigation" under your name. Including this title could convey the impression this is an FBI product.

Our findings are based on Bureau publication and security policy and extend only to the release of information contained in your submission. This, however, does not constitute approval by the FBI for you to engage in publication for compensation, sale, or other commercial use of your work. In that regard, you must also comply with the Standards of Ethical Conduct for the Executive Branch.

The Standards limit the circumstances under which an employee may accept compensation for the sale or publication of written works. The Standards also limit the extent to which you may use your official title, position, FBI status, or other indicia of your FBI employment in connection with publishing, advertising or marketing your work, to include mention in any biographical statement related to the work, such as in a "dust jacket." If you intend to mention in your biographical statement that you work for the FBI, you should consult the Office of Integrity and Compliance (OIC).

Again, compliance with the prepublication policy does not relieve you of the obligation to comply with the Standards and other applicable FBI and Office of Government Ethics regulations or policies. Prior to taking any further action with respect to this work, consider applicable regulations as set forth in the FBI Ethics and Integrity Program Policy Guide (0454PG), with particular attention to Sections 4.8. and 4.9. Re: Article: "Mamas, Don't Let Your Babies Grow Up to be Business Continuity Professionals"

Dear Mr. Bingel,

This letter is in response to your request of April 14, 2015, for review of the above referenced article for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Manual (POL05-001-RMD).

We have reviewed the work and concluded that none of the information presented falls within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of the content of your work, as presented in your submission. Our findings are based on Bureau publication and security policy and extend only to the release of information contained in your submission. This, however, does not constitute approval by the FBI for you to engage in publication for compensation, sale, or other commercial use of your work. In that regard, you must also comply with the Standards of Ethical Conduct for the Executive Branch.

The Standards limit the circumstances under which an employee may accept compensation for the sale or publication of written works. The Standards also limit the extent to which you may use your official title, position, FBI status, or other indicia of your FBI employment in connection with publishing, advertising or marketing your work, to include mention in any biographical statement related to the work, such as in a "dust jacket." As you mentioned in your biographical statement that you work for the FBI, you should consult the Office of Integrity and Compliance (OIC).

Again, compliance with the prepublication policy does not relieve you of the obligation to comply with the Standards and other applicable FBI and Office of Government Ethics regulations or policies. Prior to taking any further action with respect to this work, consider applicable regulations as set forth in the FBI Ethics and Integrity Program Policy Guide (0454PG), with particular attention to Sections 4.8. and 4.9. You may also be required to submit an FD-331 Outside Employment Form depending on how you intend to sell or market your work. Please contact the OIC if you have any questions regarding these regulations.

As your work may also impact the mission of the Office of Public Affairs, a copy of this letter has been forwarded to that office for their information.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at fbiprepub@ic.fbi.gov. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Re: Article: "Impediment to Intelligence: How the FBI's Corporate Culture has Undercut Post September 11 Reform"

Dear Mr. Tromblay,

This letter is in response to your request of April 16, 2015, for review of the above referenced article for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review
Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Manual (POL05-001-RMD).

This article was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and the reviewer noted the following matter which requires possible amendment/correction.

On page one, please delete the block, "Federal Bureau of Investigation" under your name. Including this title could convey the impression this is an FBI product.

Our findings are based on Bureau publication and security policy and extend only to the release of information contained in your submission. This, however, does not constitute approval by the FBI
for you to engage in publication for compensation, sale, or other commercial use of your work. In that regard, you must also comply

in connection with publishing, advertising or marketing your work, to

Again, compliance with the prepublication policy does not relieve you of the obligation to comply with the Standards and other applicable FBI and Office of Government Ethics regulations or policies. Prior to taking any further action with respect to this work, consider applicable regulations as set forth in the FBI Ethics and Integrity Program Policy Guide (0454PG), with particular attention to Sections 4.8. and 4.9. You may also be required to submit an FD-331 Outside Employment Form depending on how you intend to sell or market your work. Please contact the OIC if you have any questions regarding these regulations.

As your work may also impact the mission of the Office of Public Affairs, a copy of this letter has been forwarded to that office for their information.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at fbiprepub@ic.fbi.gov. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

U.S. Mexico Security Fence"

Dear Mr. Thornton,

This letter is in response to your request of May 6, 2015, for review of the above referenced paper for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Manual (POL05-001-RMD).

This paper was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and the reviewer noted the following matter which requires possible amendment/correction.

On page one, please delete the four lines after your name. Including these titles could convey the impression this is an FBI product.

Our findings are based on Bureau publication and security policy and extend only to the release of information contained in your submission. This, however, does not constitute approval by the FBI for you to engage in publication for compensation, sale, or other commercial use of your work. In that regard, you must also comply with the Standards of Ethical Conduct for the Executive Branch.

The Standards limit the circumstances under which an employee may accept compensation for the sale or publication of written works. The Standards also limit the extent to which you may use your official title, position, FBI status, or other indicia of your FBI employment in connection with publishing, advertising or marketing your work, to include mention in any biographical statement related to the work, such as in a "dust jacket." If you intend to mention in your biographical statement that you work for the FBI, you should consult the Office of Integrity and Compliance (OIC).

Again, compliance with the prepublication policy does not relieve you of the obligation to comply with the Standards and other applicable FBI and Office of Government Ethics regulations or policies. Prior to taking any further action with respect to this work, consider applicable regulations as set forth in the FBI Ethics and Integrity Program Policy Guide (0454PG), with particular attention to Sections 4.8. and 4.9. You may also be required to submit an FD-331 Outside Employment Form depending on how you intend to sell or market your work. Please contact the OIC if you have any questions regarding these regulations.

As your work may also impact the mission of the Office of Public Affairs, a copy of this letter has been forwarded to that office for their information.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at fbiprepub@ic.fbi.gov. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Re: Paper: "Therapy in the Age of Cultural Diversity"

Dear Mr. Ambrosini,

This letter is in response to your request of June 2, 2015, for review of the above referenced paper for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Manual (POL05-001-RMD).

We have reviewed the work and concluded that none of the information presented falls within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of the content of your work, as presented in your submission. Our findings are based on Bureau publication and security policy and extend only to the release of information contained in your submission. This, however, does not constitute approval by the FBI for you to engage in publication for compensation, sale, or other commercial use of your work. In that regard, you must also comply with the Standards of Ethical Conduct for the Executive Branch.

Again, compliance with the prepublication policy does not relieve you of the obligation to comply with the Standards and other applicable FBI and Office of Government Ethics regulations or policies. Prior to taking any further action with respect to this work, consider applicable regulations as set forth in the FBI Ethics and Integrity Program Policy Guide (0454PG), with particular attention to Sections 4.8. and 4.9. You may also be required to submit an FD-331 Outside Employment Form depending on how you intend to sell or market your work. Please contact the OIC if you have any questions regarding these regulations.

As your work may also impact the mission of the Office of Public Affairs, a copy of this letter has been forwarded to that office for their information.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at fbiprepub@ic.fbi.gov. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Re: Manuscript: "Big Bills Only, Please!"
(Second Review)

Dear Mr. Webb,

This letter is in response to your request of March 23, 2015, for review of the above referenced manuscript for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Policy Guide (0792PG).

This manuscript was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and the reviewer noted the following matters which require possible amendment/correction.

For the following names, please ensure that a pseudonym is used to protect the identity of this individual:

Pg. 60:

*If the name listed above is already pseudonym, the name is approved. In addition, if the name is publicly known through court records or news articles, the name is approved. If not, please delete or modify the name. Also, if you have written approval from the above individual to use her real name, please provide a copy of the authorization, and we will approve the release.

On page 20, 1st paragraph, line 3 and all mentions thereafter, please do not identify the individual as "CW." The FBI Humint Operations Section has asked that "CW," be removed from the manuscript and a pseudonym be used to identify this person.

On page 22, 1st paragraph, lines 4-6, please delete the sentence regarding the electronic surveillance technique. This information reveals a sensitive investigative method.

On page 45, 1st paragraph, please delete the last six lines in their entirety. Information that would reveal grand jury material is prohibited from disclosure.

On page 51, 1st paragraph, please delete the sentence on lines 10-12. Information that would reveal grand jury material is prohibited from disclosure.

On page 51, 2nd paragraph, please delete the sentence on lines 1-3. Information that would reveal grand jury material is prohibited from disclosure.

On page 60, please delete the last paragraph in its entirety. Information that would reveal grand jury material is prohibited from disclosure.

Please delete page 61 in its entirety. Information that would reveal grand jury material is prohibited from disclosure.

You may include your past FBI employment as part of your biographical data, providing that the FBI is given no more emphasis than other similar biographical information. In addition, please incorporate a disclaimer advising readers that the opinions expressed in the manuscript are yours and not those of the FBI.

FBI Records Management Division would like to apologize for the delay in the review of your manuscript. We appreciate your patience as we worked through the review process, and your willingness to work with us to complete this review.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at fbiprepub@ic.fbi.gov. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Dear Mr. Costanza,

This letter is in response to your request of June 4, 2015, for review of the above referenced manuscript for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Policy Guide (0792PG).

Your submission was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and we concluded that none of the information presented falls within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of your manuscript, as presented.

You may include your past FBI employment as part of your biographical data, providing that the FBI is given no more emphasis than other similar biographical information. In addition, please incorporate a disclaimer advising readers that the opinions expressed in the manuscript are yours and not those of the FBI.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [REDACTED] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at fbiprepub@ic.fbi.gov. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Re: Lone Wolf Terrorism Report and PowerPoint

Dear Mr. Doyle,

This letter is in response to your request of July 9, 2015, for review of the above referenced report and PowerPoint for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Policy Guide (0792PG).

We have reviewed the work and concluded that none of the information presented falls within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of the content of your work, as presented in your submission. Our findings are based on Bureau publication and security policy and extend only to the release of information contained in your submission. This, however, does not constitute approval by the FBI for you to engage in publication for compensation, sale, or other commercial use of your work. In that regard, you must also comply with the Standards of Ethical Conduct for the Executive Branch.

Again, compliance with the prepublication policy does not relieve you of the obligation to comply with the Standards and other applicable FBI and Office of Government Ethics regulations or policies. Prior to taking any further action with respect to this work, consider applicable regulations as set forth in the FBI Ethics and Integrity Program Policy Guide (0454PG), with particular attention to Sections 4.8. and 4.9. You may also be required to submit an FD-331 Outside Employment Form depending on how you intend to sell or market your work. Please contact the OIC if you have any questions regarding these regulations.

As your work may also impact the mission of the Office of Public Affairs, a copy of this letter has been forwarded to that office for their information.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at fbiprepub@ic.fbi.gov. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Re: Manuscript: "The G-Man and the Diamond King"

Dear Special Agent Plunkett,

This letter is in response to your manuscript received by Director Comey's Office, and forwarded to the FBI's Records Management Division on July 17, 2015. I applaud your efforts to bring to life a story which exemplifies the dedication to duty and sacrifices of the men and women who served (and continue to serve) the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). I personally enjoyed reading your book and was impressed with your diligent research.

As a result of the many sensitive issues which FBI employees work with on a daily basis, we have a requirement for prepublication review of manuscripts concerning the FBI authored by current and former employees. This prepublication review affords the FBI the opportunity to assess whether the proposed disclosure includes prohibited disclosures, to advise the submitting employee of any such concerns, and to work with the employee to resolve such concerns. Your manuscript certainly did not raise any such issues.

Nevertheless, for any future works you wish to publish either orally, written, or electronically, and which disclose FBI information, please give us a chance to review the manuscript before publication. Our review time is normally less than 30 days.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at fbiprepub@ic.fbi.gov. Thank you again for your efforts to honor SA Klein and, in doing so,

Dear Ms. Gaylord,

This letter is in response to your request of August 10, 2015, for a request to participate in a speech at Teva Pharmaceuticals pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Policy Guide (0792PG).

Your request to participate is approved, subject to the following: Any discussion of matters concerning your official duties with the FBI may not involve pending cases, grand jury, classified, and other information, the disclosure of which could violate criminal laws or Department of Justice or FBI policy. In addition, please be advised that this approval should not be construed to permit the disclosure of:

Information protected from agency disclosure by the Privacy Act;

Information that is classified or the disclosure of which could otherwise harm national security;

Information that reveals sensitive law enforcement, intelligence, or counterintelligence techniques, sources or methods; or that reveals the sensitive, confidential or proprietary techniques, sources, or methods of other agencies or entities;

Information that would reveal grand jury material protected from disclosure by Rule 6(e) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure;

Information that would reveal the identity of a confidential source

or informant;

Information that relates to any sensitive operational details or the substantive merits of any ongoing or open investigation, inquest, probe, prosecution, appeal, or case;

Information that consists of the proprietary information of another, including trading secrets;

H. Information pertaining to wiretaps or intercepts protected or regulated by Title III (Title 18, U.S.C., Sections 2510-2520);

I. Information pertaining to currency transaction reports regulated or protected by Title 31, U.S.C., Section 5319;

J. Tax return information regulated or protected by Title 26, U.S.C., Section 6103;

K. Information pertaining to contractor bids or proposals or source-selection information before the award of the procurement contract to which the information relates;

L. Information protected from disclosure by any other federal statute or regulation; or,

M. Information exempt from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act (Title 5, U.S. C., Section 552) unless the material is clearly already in the public domain. (MAOP, Part I, 1-24 (5)(a)(1))

Also, please provide a clear statement in your speech that the views expressed are yours and not those of the FBI.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [REDACTED] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at fbiprepub@ic.fbi.gov. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Re: Math Class Letter

Dear Ms. Johnson,

This letter is in response to your request of August 24, 2015, for review of the above referenced letter for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Policy Guide (0792PG).

We have reviewed the work and concluded that none of the information presented falls within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of the content of your work, as presented in your submission. Our findings are based on Bureau publication and security policy and extend only to the release of information contained in your submission. This, however, does not constitute approval by the FBI for you to engage in publication for compensation, sale, or other commercial use of your work. In that regard, you must also comply with the Standards of Ethical Conduct for the Executive Branch.

The Standards limit the circumstances under which an employee may accept compensation for the sale or publication of written works. The Standards also limit the extent to which you may use your official title, position, FBI status, or other indicia of your FBI employment in connection with publishing, advertising or marketing your work, to include mention in any biographical statement related to the work, such as in a "dust jacket." If you intend to mention in your biographical statement that you work for the FBI, you should consult the Office of Integrity and Compliance (OIC).

Again, compliance with the prepublication policy does not relieve you of the obligation to comply with the Standards and other applicable FBI and Office of Government Ethics regulations or policies. Prior to taking any further action with respect to this work, consider applicable regulations as set forth in the FBI Ethics and Integrity Program Policy Guide (0454PG), with particular attention to Sections 4.8. and 4.9. You may also be required to submit an FD-331 Outside Employment Form depending on how you intend to sell or market your work. Please contact the OIC if you have any questions regarding these regulations.

As your work may also impact the mission of the Office of Public Affairs, a copy of this letter has been forwarded to that office for their information.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at fbiprepub@ic.fbi.gov. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Re: Summary of Accomplishments

Dear Mr. Greene,

This letter is in response to your request of August 31, 2015, for review of the above referenced summary for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Policy Guide (0792PG).

We have reviewed the work and concluded that none of the information presented falls within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of the content of your work, as presented in your submission. Our findings are based on Bureau publication and security policy and extend only to the release of information contained in your submission. This, however, does not constitute approval by the FBI for you to engage in publication for compensation, sale, or other commercial use of your work. In that regard, you must also comply with the Standards of Ethical Conduct for the Executive Branch.

Again, compliance with the prepublication policy does not relieve you of the obligation to comply with the Standards and other applicable FBI and Office of Government Ethics regulations or policies. Prior to taking any further action with respect to this work, consider applicable regulations as set forth in the FBI Ethics and Integrity Program Policy Guide (0454PG), with particular attention to Sections 4.8. and 4.9. You may also be required to submit an FD-331 Outside Employment Form depending on how you intend to sell or market your work. Please contact the OIC if you have any questions regarding these regulations.

As your work may also impact the mission of the Office of Public Affairs, a copy of this letter has been forwarded to that office for their information.

Re: Topic Discussion: "FITARA and Its Impact on the FBI"

Dear Mr. Adams,

This letter is in response to your request of September 18, 2015, for review of the above referenced topic discussion for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Policy Guide (0792PG).

We have reviewed the work and concluded that none of the information presented falls within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of the content of your work, as presented in your submission. Our findings are based on Bureau publication and security policy and extend only to the release of information contained in your submission. This, however, does not constitute approval by the FBI for you to engage in publication for compensation, sale, or other commercial use of your work. In that regard, you must also comply with the Standards of Ethical Conduct for the Executive Branch.

Again, compliance with the prepublication policy does not relieve you of the obligation to comply with the Standards and other applicable FBI and Office of Government Ethics regulations or policies. Prior to taking any further action with respect to this work, consider applicable regulations as set forth in the FBI Ethics and Integrity Program Policy Guide (0454PG), with particular attention to Sections 4.8. and 4.9. You may also be required to submit an FD-331 Outside Employment Form depending on how you intend to sell or market your work. Please contact the OIC if you have any questions regarding these regulations.

As your work may also impact the mission of the Office of Public Affairs, a copy of this letter has been forwarded to that office for their information.
